

Report: St. Louis Illusion 15- Detroit Waza 5

Waza fell to 0-5 on the season as St. Louis blew past Detroit 15-5.

Veteran Joe Reiniger led the line for St. Louis with five goals and two assist while Elvar Kafedzic chipped in with four goals and four assists.

Nikki Djokic scored his seventh goal of the season and Dominic Scicluna got back into the goal column scoring his first since opening day, but it wasn't nearly enough as the Illusion took full advantage of a slow start.

"We can not afford to start so slowly," Djokic lamented after the game. "We played well in the third and fourth quarter but by then it was too late."

Waza has a chance for redemption tomorrow night as it heads to the Illinois capital to face the Springfield Spirits in their final match of this six game road swing.
