

Match Report: Detroit Waza Flo Pro 8- St. Louis Illusion 13

Detroit suffered its first home loss of the season at the hands of St. Louis 13-8 at Compuware Arena.

Tommy Eller continued his fine form for Waza with a hat trick and Blake Ordell added one goal for his fifth goal in two games. Daniel Trospen scored twice in his return to the Waza line-up, but it wasn't enough as Elver Kafedzic (five goals) and Mike Banner (three goals) led St. Louis to its first away victory of the season.

"We just didn't execute today," lamented player/owner Mario Scicluna. "There are a few things we can fix this week and we will be fully prepared to face West Virginia next weekend."

Waza will be back in action this Sunday, January 18th against the West Virginia Quantum Force at 7:00 P.M. at Compuware Arena. Waza won the last meeting between the two squads 11-10 in Overtime on West Virginia's home turf and are looking to do the double over them in what should be a fiercely contested battle.
